AGENDA

14.00 (CET) Opening and welcome words

14.05 Saving our playground

Keynote by Kilian Jornet about the immediate need for the outdoor sports sector to take action and responsibility for the environmental transition

14.25 The Outdoor Sector - An Unlikely Champion

As a small and relatively poorly financed sector, the outdoor world is an unlikely champion of better business. So how has the movement for social responsibility, sustainability, environmental protection and conservation become so embedded in what we do? Mark Held looks at the development of this phenomenon and the challenges that lie ahead

14.40 Pathways to environmental transition for the outdoor sport sector and the european society

- Nicola Notaro / Head of the Nature Unit DG ENV European Commission
- Mark Held / President of the European Outdoor Group
- Dr Noel Doyle / Researcher at Leave No Trace Ireland
- Carol Ritchie / Executive Director of EUROPARC Federation
- Kilian Jornet / Outdoor sports professional athlete

15.20 Perspectives and way forward for the outdoor sports sector

Eduard Ingles Yuba, director of the National Institute of Physical Education in Catalonia (INEFC, Universitat de Barcelona)
